Awakening To Oneness

Philadelphia/Southern NJ
Region

The Oneness Blessing(also known as Deeksha), is a powerful transmission of spiritual energy or grace that can momentarily disrupt our habitual patterns of seeing to reveal an experience of life as it is, free of the commentary and judgment of our thoughts, conditioning, and fears. It initiates a process of deep and permanent transformation and awakening, and facilitates emotional and physical healing. The Blessing is non-denominational, not aligned with any religious or cultural tradition and is offered to everyone all weekend.

The power of the Blessing is increased when transferred through people who have awakened; that is to say, have experienced a deep and permanent shift in consciousness of Oneness. There will be three special sessions for this 'Awakened Deeksha'.

Oneness blessing gatherings are held throughout the greater Philadelphia area and many are listed within this brochure.
